DIAMOND KINGS AS LITIGANTS.

SYNDICATE OF "UNBELIEVABLE WEALTH AND POWER."

DANCING INSTRUCTOR AS DIAMOND EXPERT.

[UNITED PRESS.]

Searching days, in the South African veldt, overland treks in the jungles of British Guiana, native workers grubbing in the earth for wealth while their white masters plan to regulate the world market to their own liking, all the romance of diamonds from a black man's efforts to smuggle a precious stone from a mine to a wealthy white woman's admiration, all the same gem, are reflected in the litigation of the diamond kings now in progress in London.

Several of the richest and most influential men in the diamond trade are defendants in the suit. They formed a diamond syndicate which controlled the output of the world. The syndicate was described in Court as being of "unbelievable wealth and power," and the extent of its operations sounded like the dreams of a fiction writer. Members of the syndicate sued by the United Diamond Fields of British Guiana included Solomon (Solly) Joel and his brother Jack Joel, wealthy English sportsmen whose stables house some of the finest race horses in the country, the Barnato brothers, members of another prominent family and Sir Ernest Oppenheimer, Louis Oppenheimer and Otto Oppenheimer, the latter described as the "man of mystery" in the fight for the control of diamonds throughout the world.

World-Market Glutted.

The United Diamond Fields Company claimed that when it was formed in 1926 to exploit diamond properties in British Guiana it went the way of all diamond companies and agreed to sell only to the diamond syndicate. Otto Oppenheimer became a sort of expert adviser to the new company, for the directors admitted that they knew nothing about diamonds except that they were valuable. The company claims that the syndicate appointed Oppenheimer to run their business, and to run on the rocks if necessary, the syndicate disowns Oppenheimer entirely, which may account in some small way for his "mystery man" title.

Soon after the company started operations, a new diamond-field was discovered at Lichtenburg, South Africa. This discovery, the company claims, made it necessary for the syndicate to limit the output of existing diamond sources. The world market was glutted. The plaintiffs allege that, by deliberate fraud the syndicate, through Oppenheimer, so raised the method of assortment that it had the effect of reducing the amount they had to pay the company for its diamonds. The company also claims that Oppenheimer sent out a diamond expert to British Guiana, but that he was more expert at dancing with diamond-decked dames than in judging gems, for he turned out to be a dancing-instructor.

The company eventually lost its capital of $500,000, and sued the syndicate for an original claim of $450,000, which was later amended. Diamonds of great value, hermetically sealed in a small case, were displayed for the benefit of the jury. One witness recalled that when United Diamond Fields sought a better deal with the syndicate, Oppenheimer said that he would go and play poker with Solly Joel and lose $250 "to get him in a good humour."

Mysterious Figures.

The limelight to which the diamond kings have been subjected offered a new thrill to the English public for the men who control the diamond market of the world have always been mysterious figures. They made fortunes in South Africa, where seventy years ago anyone who suggested that there might be a diamond in the whole country would have been laughed at as a lunatic. Land worth millions of pounds sterling an acre not many years later could have been bought at the time for a few shillings. Fifty dollars would have bought the Kimberley homestead, under which lay treasures worth twenty million pounds sterling, or approximately $300,000,000.

Discovered by Accident.

South Africa's diamond riches were discovered by accident. One autumn evening in 1867 a trader named O'Reilly travelling across the veldt in a wagon drawn by oxen arrived at the isolated farm of a Boer named Schalk Van Neikerk. After supper O'Reilly found his host engaged in a game of marbles with his sons, "Queer kind of marbles," said the trader, examining one of the roughly rounded stones. He took one to an expert in Grahamstown and found that the boys had been playing with diamonds. Van Neikerk, remembering that he had once seen a Hottentot with a similar, but larger stone, found the native after several weeks and traded his farm and cattle for one of the most famous diamonds in the world, the Star of Africa.

The children of a farmer named Van Wyk picked pebbles from the mud with which the house was roughly plastered and the farmer found that the walls of his humble home were literally encrusted with diamonds. A young man named Rawstone, resting in the shade after a day's shooting, discovered the diamond that led to the development of the Kimberley mine, and indirectly to the riches of the Dutoitspan, De Beers, and Bullfontein properties. The Kimberley farm had been sold a few months before for about $40.

A sensation has been created in Russian emigre circles in Paris by New York advices that the Washington Government is contemplating the deportation of the self-styled Grand Duchess Anastasia (Madame Chaikovsky) who stayed in the United States with the former Princess Xenia (Mrs. Leeds), whose recent divorce is generally attributed to her zealous championship of the Grand Duchess Anastasia, to which Mr. Leeds strenuously objected. It is rumoured that both the Soviet Government, as claimants to the Tsar's heritage, and the Anglo-American banks brought pressure to bear on the Washington Government to order the expulsion.

ROYAL FLUSH WINS FROM CLASSY FIELD.

PRESIDENT HALL "PIPPED ON THE POST" IN SATURDAY'S MAIN EVENT.

ZORHAN EQUALS LOCAL THREE-QUARTER RECORD IN HANDICAP EVENT.

DAY OF SURPRISES AND BIG DIVIDENDS.

[By "MORNING DEW,"]

President Hall, one of the best ponies in Hong Kong at the moment, went under to Royal Flush on Saturday after a thrilling race over a mile. The Chinese-owned pony led all the way, but Royal Flush drew level a few yards from the winning post and won by the narrowest of margins conceivable. The finish was very thrilling, the crowds shouting themselves hoarse as the two ponies raced up the straight. Mr. Heard's win was very popular and he was given a great ovation on being led in.

Boxing Eve won the first race, but in the next, the winner, an outsider, paid his supporters over 27-1. Thereafter, favourites had a lean time and some very handsome dividends were paid out.

Mr. Heard figured in another thrilling finish later in the afternoon, when Christmas Chimes, which he rode, accounted for Four Clubs by a "short head."

FULL DESCRIPTION OF DAY'S SPORT AND FIGURES.

Mr. Frost was the most successful jockey of the day, riding two winners, one second and three thirds. Mr. Heard rode two winners, a second and a third, but otherwise honours were fairly even among owners and jockeys alike.

THE RACING.

Colonial Stakes.

Boxing Eve started at 10-1 against this race over five furlongs, there being seven other contenders. After a series of false starts, the field got well away, with Pickle badly left.

A little after the first furlong, Boxing Eve took the lead and entering the straight, was two lengths ahead of Winsome Stag, who put up a great race, but was no match for the "Eve" pony, who eventually got the verdict by two lengths.

Young Pretender was third, half a length behind Winsome Stag. Pickle, in spite of his wretched start, came in on the heels of Young Pretender.

Seven ponies accepted for this event and, strangely enough, Mount Elburz was made favourite. He failed to find a place nor did Thunderbolt and Iron Blood, the next in demand.

Campbell set a hot pace over the first three furlongs, but Duncie and a number of others got on level terms with the leader at the village.

Imperial Hall was fifth on entering the straight, but once there he showed the others a clean pair of heels to give Mr. Ip Kui Ying his first win. Supporters of Imperial Hall were paid 27-1 by the Pari-Mutuel.

Mr. Heard got Duncie a second place, and Sunning was a good third.

Commonwealth Handicap "B" Class.

Thirteen ponies faced the starter here, but once the flag fell, it was evident that Orlando was the only pony in the race. He led from start to finish.

Christmas Frolic, after a hard effort, managed to run within two lengths of the winner. Cream Cracker was third, another length and half behind.

Abel (Mr. Heard), The Pheasant (Mr. da Roza) and Blue Heaven (Mr. Harriman) were the heaviest backed ponies. They failed to make any impression on the leaders.

Easter Stakes.

Only three ponies, President Hall, Royal Flush and Chesapeake Bay, started here. President Hall was a "red-hot" favourite, but he was literally "pipped on the post" by Royal Flush.

At the outset, Mr. da Roza sent President Hall to the van to crack a hot pace. Mr. Heard quickly sent Royal Flush after the grey, while Mr. Frost on Chesapeake Bay had to admit defeat from the word "Go."

Royal Flush kept two lengths behind President Hall all the way up to the last quarter post. Here the roan was pushed and he got on level terms with the Chinese-owned pony. The two raced up the straight, stride for stride, neither giving way, but Mr. Heard got a few inches more out of his mount just as the ponies "whipped" past the winning post. The excellent time of 2 minutes and 2-5 seconds was returned.

Commonwealth Handicap "A" Class.

Only four ponies started here and Zorhan, from Shanghai, was made favourite, with Piccalilli next, then Fifty Fifty and Monterey Bay the least backed of all. The ponies finished exactly in the order of their popularity.

Piccalilli set the pace, but was no match for Zorhan, who won easily in the straight, coming in in a canter. Fifty Fifty was many lengths behind Piccalilli. Zorhan did the distance in 1 minute and 28 seconds.

Empire Handicap "B" Class.

There were nine starters here, The Tiger being favourite, with Chivalrous next in demand.

One Third, Town Hall and Blue Boy showed the way but they ran unconvincingly, and at the Rock, Christmas Belle and The Tiger closed up on the leaders, with Lobster Bay quickly joining the vanguard.

Chivalrous made up a lot of ground in the straight and came through to win comfortably by a length and a half. Lobster Bay was second, being only a short head in front of Town Hall. The favourite was nowhere in the picture.

Union Plate.

Sonny Boy ran true to form when he accounted for a field of 13 in this event. Snafell (Mr. Frost) up was a hot favourite, with Shanghai Beau next in demand.

Sonny Boy ran in the middle of the field until entering the straight, when he took the lead and remained there notwithstanding a strong challenge from Shanghai Beau, whom he defeated by a length. Snafell came up with a strong burst of speed at the end to get third place. The winner paid 11-1.

Dominion Plate.

Bridge Hall was joint favourite with Done Again in this race, where five ponies in all started. Tango (Mr. Harriman) was sent to the front at the start and he stayed there for three-quarters of the way, when Bridge Hall took charge. Tango, however, was not to be denied and he fought every inch of the way home. He was beaten by half a length.

Done Again appeared to have kept his effort until it was too late. He was a length behind Tango.

Empire Handicap "A" Class.

With nine good ponies in this race, Carnival Eve, the top weight, tried to make a runaway race of it, but he paid the price.

A quarter of a mile from home, Four Clubs took the lead and had the race well in hand, then Mr. Heard, on Christmas Chimes, came along with a great rush and won the race on the very last stride.

Carnival Eve came along with a strong "second wind" in the straight and was within half a length of Four Clubs at the end.

Commonwealth Handicap "D" Class.

As You Like It won by half a length here from Movanager, who was again half a length in front of Martini Cocktail. The last-named was sent to the front early on, but could not last the distance, both As You Like It and Movanager passing him in the straight. The winner was an easy favourite.

TO-DAY'S PROSPECTS

SOME TIPS AND SELECTIONS.

Junk Bay Plate.

To-day's racing commences with a seven furlongs event in which all contenders will start at "weight for inches." In view of Zorhan's good performance on Saturday, he should have little difficulty in accounting for the race here. Pickle and Chesapeake Bay might accept also, and I should nominate them for the places.

Mirs Bay Handicap "C" Class.

In spite of an additional five pounds which Imperial Hall will be carrying to-day, he ought to account for this event. Town Hall will give him a good run if started and Tango at 150 pounds is also worth considering. I see Duke of Normandy will be carrying 150 pounds only, and if he is well mounted, should get a place.

Mirs Bay Handicap "B" Class.

Orlando looks like annexing this event, as he has only 145 pounds to look after, plus an additional five for winning on Saturday. Christmas Frolic and Blue Heaven are some of the others worth considering.

Easter Plate.

There should be nothing to touch President Hall in this long race and, in my opinion, even Royal Flush and Boxing Eve, both of which are in tip-top condition, cannot come near this grey. I don't know if Boxing Eve will face the starter, but if not, the race will be no less interesting, as there will be another excellent pace-maker in Carnival Eve, who might get a place.

Gin Drinkers Bay Plate.

Young Pretender, if started here, will probably annex the honours, as there is nothing very good against him. One Third disappointed badly on Saturday, but might redeem himself with a place here. Cream Cracker will have the assistance of Mr. Frost, and that is worth remembering.

Tolo Plate.

For non-winning griffins of this season, this race over a mile and a quarter is going to provide a big dividend. Abel or Christmas Belle will have Mr. Heard on the saddle and will probably start favourite. Empress Hall, with Mr. Harriman up, also might prove to be a good proposition, but I did not like the way in which this grey was moving last week in the training gallops. Blue Boy also looks good. Windsor Stag, if Mr. Frost will ride, has a good chance if he is fit, but he has not been racing since the Annual Meeting, and punters would do well to bear this fact in mind.

Starling Stakes.

On the face of the conditions of this race, Sonny Boy is eligible to run here if I am right in stating that he has won to date, only $1,000 in stakes and can, therefore, run in this race, which is confined to sibs of this season which have not won more than $1,000 in stakes. He should repeat his performance of Saturday. Thracian, Shanghai Beau and Duncie also are some of the more prominent ones.

Hebe Plate.

We should see some of the best sibs out in this race, but I am still waiting to see which one could best Bridge Hall in view of his present form. Cream Cracker might run him very close, but whether he will beat Bridge Hall is another question. Zephyr carries 150 and might be worth remembering. I see The Jamaica and The Ape are both entered but they are not in condition just now and should not worry punters.

Mirs Bay Handicap "A" Class.

In view of Christmas Chimes' good performance on Saturday, he should start favourite in this race, considering the small weight which he will be carrying. Winsome Stag might be kept back for this event also, in which case, the race should be pretty hot, as Four Clubs, Fifty Fifty, and Monterey Bay are some of those who are under the 150 pounds mark.

Mirs Bay Handicap "D" Class.

If Movanager can stay a mile, he should win here. Martini Cocktail is worth remembering and Pumpkin, Strathroy, Sunloch are also worth an odd ticket each way.

LESSON SERMON.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST, HONG KONG.

"Doctrine of atonement" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, yesterday.

The Golden Text was: "If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed; behold, all things are become new." (11. Cor. 5: 17).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "These words spake Jesus, and lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour is come; glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee. Holy Father, keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are. Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word. That they may all be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me." (John 17: 1, 11, 20, 21).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science text-book—"Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Man is deathless, spiritual. He is above sin or frailty. He does not cross the barriers of time into the vast forever of Life, but he coexists with God and the universe." (P. 236).

TARIFF BARRIERS IN FRANCE.

RETAILATORY DUTY ON MOTOR-CARS AIMED AT AMERICA.

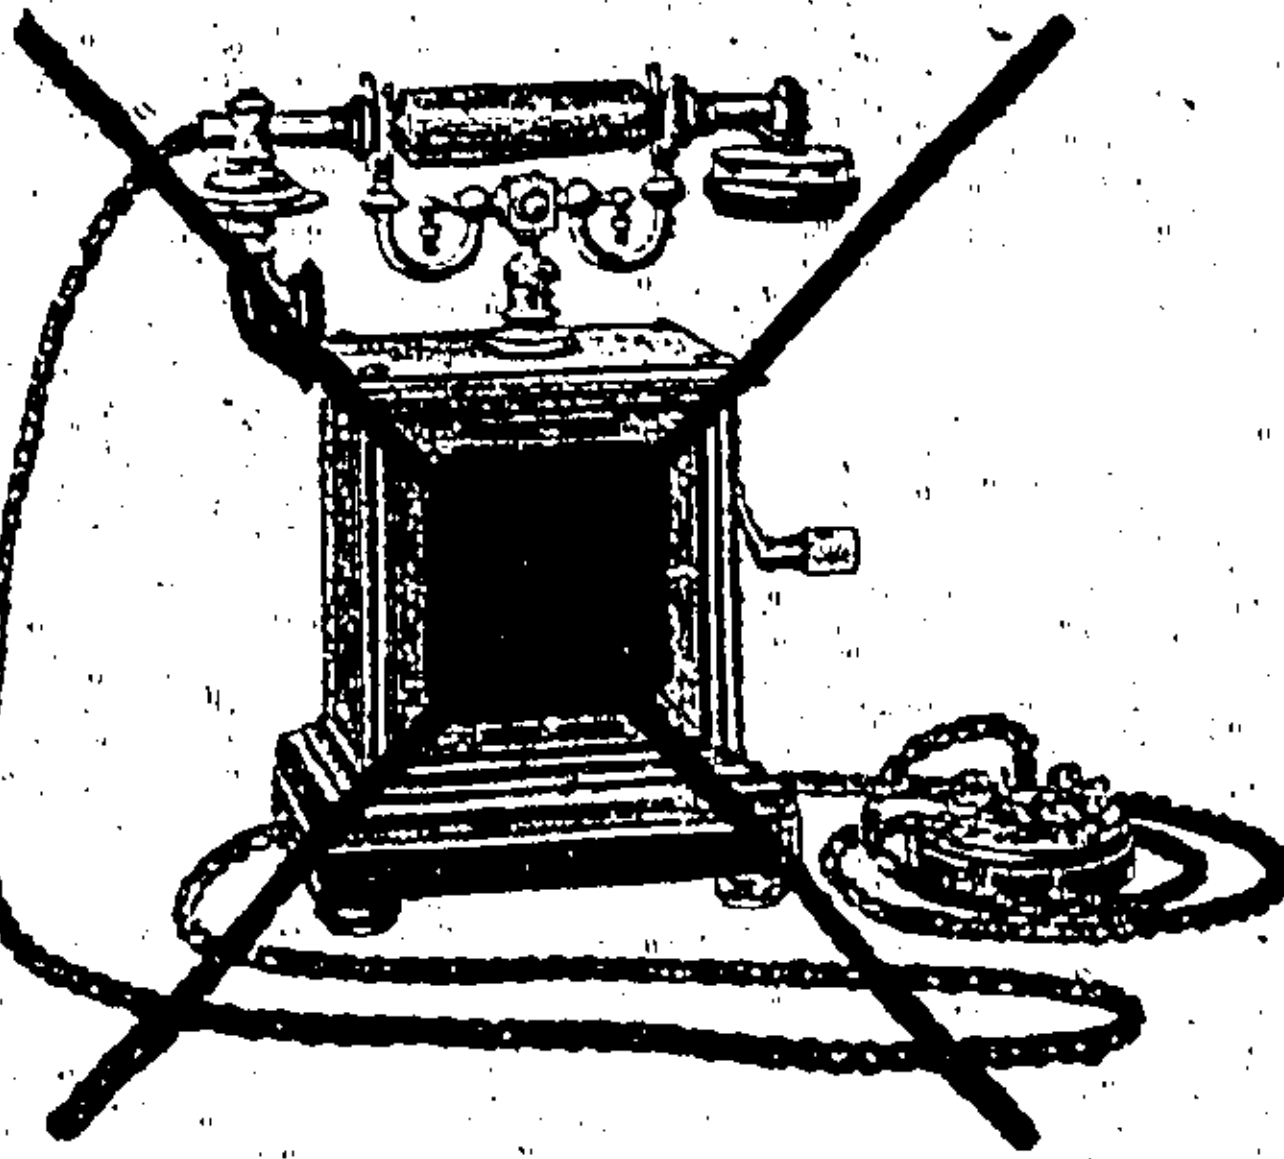

PARIS, April 19. A sensation has been caused in French industrial circles by the sudden announcement by the Government of an increase in the Customs import duty on motor-cars from 25 per cent. to 60 per cent. This increase is chiefly directed against the United States' increase of tariff duties. It is expected that this increase will practically exclude from the French market all foreign-made automobiles.

SILVER BULLET'S BAD FORTUNE.

DAYTONA BEACH. TOO BAD FOR TRIALS.

[UNITED PRESS.]

New York, April 14.—The American Automobile Association contest board admitted to-day that conditions on the Daytona Beach speedway have been unsatisfactory of late and advised Raye Don, the British speed driver, to cease his efforts with the Sunbeam creation, Silver Bullet, until conditions will be better.

This move ended official recognition for the time being, of the speed tests.

CHINESE CATHOLIC PRIEST ORDAINED.

NEW SEMINARY IN ABERDEEN.

At the compound outside the Catholic Cathedral, Cairne Road, a large section of the Chinese Catholic community gathered last night to congratulate and present an address to Fr. Peter Ngai, who was ordained as a priest on Saturday. After the address had been read by Mr. Simon Tse Yan, the new priest himself spoke and laid stress on the fact that there were not enough Chinese priests in China to carry on the good work of the Catholic religion. He said he was conscious of the honour bestowed on him by the Church and also by the community, whose co-operation he asked in order that his future duties could be best carried out.

Bishop Valorta also spoke, and said that he would congratulate not only the new priest, but his parents and the Catholic community as well. "Good priests are a blessing from God to the people," said Bishop Valorta, "and the community will see later that Fr. Ngai is a good priest." The Bishop announced the news that in order to cope with the training of Chinese priests for service in China a big seminary is in course of construction in Aberdeen, and he expressed the hope that a good number of young men would enter the seminary, which was ordered to be constructed by the Pope himself.

A concert, conducted by the Chinese Catholic Young Men's Society followed. The St. Louis band played several pleasing selections and a series of lectures and addresses. A representation from learned societies and universities from many countries will attend. To commemorate the event two homes capable of housing 1,000 students will be founded.

Moscow, April 8.—The 175th anniversary of the foundation of the University of Moscow will be celebrated in May by extensive festivities and a series of lectures and addresses. Representatives from learned societies and universities from many countries will attend. To commemorate the event two homes capable of housing 1,000 students will be founded.

THE SILVER SCREEN.

SPARKLING PICTURE AT THE QUEEN'S.

"Broadway," an all-talking picture, drew crowded houses at the Queen's Theatre yesterday and will continue its attraction until the end of its run. Glenn Tryon and Merba Kennedy take leading parts in the entertainment at the Paradise Club, where a bevy of beautiful girls form the chorus. Besides being an accomplished actor, Glenn shows that he is the possessor of a good voice, and entertained with a number of the theme songs included in the picture.

The activities of a gang of boot-leggers form part of the story, between the scenes, Steve Crandall (Robert Ellis), the liquor-king, being eventually killed after being shadowed by a detective for the murder of a rival. A dazzling scene in colour is shown at the end. The picture is in every way one worth seeing.

MAGISTRATE BOILED IN OIL.

TERRIBLE BANDIT ATROCITIES.

FATE OF C.E.M. MISSIONARIES.

[UNITED PRESS.]

The fate of the two British missionaries, Mr. and Mrs. Forteous and the American, Miss Gempell, of the China Inland Mission, who are now in the hands of a Kiangsi bandit gang, is causing grave anxiety here, as latest telegrams received by the Mission from Changsha intimate that the foreign captives have been carried into the mountains and that nothing has been heard from them. Yunchow where the missionaries were captured, is on the border between Kiangsi and Hunan provinces, and its entire neighbourhood is being infested with bandits and communists who are followers of the two notorious Chinese Bolshevik leaders, Chu and Mo.

Details received from Changsha with regard to the outrage reveal that the outlaws occupied Yunchow for fully four days, during which they carried out an orgy of looting and killing. The magistrate, among other Government officials, was made prisoner and burned in oil while scores of others were tortured to death in other manners equally cruel. The Chinese pastor, the Rev. Boyang, together with the Principal of the leading High School of the district, were put to death. Practically all the shops were looted and not a few shopkeepers were ruthlessly slain. When the gang evacuated the city, the local people were forced to pay $8,000 to them as "evacuation and travelling expenses."

In both Kiangsi and Hunan the bandit situation has at present become out of control. Although officially a bandit suppression campaign has been launched, bandits are scattered in many places, and red terrorism is rapidly reviving in many towns. At Liling and Tipton in Hunan, the "Spirit Soldiers" are again rampant and are worrying the Provincial Authorities. In Kiangsi where missionary kidnappings and killings have repeatedly occurred during the last few weeks, the Chu-Mo Communists are a growing menace to peace.

PRESIDENT ON THE WORLD COURT.

MR. HOOVER'S PLEA FOR U.S.
ADHERENCE.

[UNITED PRESS.]

Washington, April 14.—Speaking before the thirty-ninth Continental Congress of the Bar today, President Hoover pleaded for more support for the World Court and urged the necessity for providing some method to mobilize public opinion against violations of the Kellogg Anti-War Pact. The Sino-Russian difficulties were introduced in proof of the latter point.

He said that he did not doubt that the United States would become a member of the court, which was the only practical organ of its sort.

The American people, in Mr. Hoover's view, had a spiritual and moral duty to participate in securing peace, although this did not mean commitments to use force for the limitation of independence.

President Hoover said that the question of the proposed United States reservations upon full adherence to the World Court was a disputed one, for which reason he did not intend to discuss it in the course of his speech.

The President pointed out that every President and Secretary of State who had been alive since the inception of the World Court had urged American adherence to it.

Referring to the London Naval Limitation Conference, the President declared that the success of this meeting represented a step toward the prevention of war.

In citing difficulties in applying the Kellogg Pact to settlement of the recent Sino-Russian controversy, President Hoover said that the need had been demonstrated for "some method of mobilization of public opinion against violation of the Kellogg Pact."

The President declared that the failure of the Geneva Conference in 1927 had renewed more dangerous armament competition, while the success of the London Conference had reduced British, Japanese and American standards of naval armaments about 25 per cent. below those of 1927.

"But most important of all," he went on, "it has rendered us able finally to turn the tide of the constantly increasing naval armaments and to end the position of suspicious ill will generated by constant rivalry in naval construction."

LOBBY REVELATIONS EXPECTED.

PROPAGANDIST BODIES TO BE CALLED BEFORE THE SENATE.

[UNITED PRESS.]

Washington, April 13.—Members of the Senate "lobby committee" will examine Mr. Henry Curran, the well known lawyer and former newspaper correspondent, on Tuesday with reference to the contributions and all records of active participation in the Association Against Prohibition.

The committee has likewise, it was revealed to-day, decided to adopt the same procedure with the activities of the Methodist Board of Prohibition, Temperance and Public Morals, and the Anti-Saloon League of America.

Some quarters are predicting that there will be some definite surprises in connection with the anticipated revelations. Charges have already been made freely that Mr. John J. Raskob, former Democratic national chairman, financially supported "wet" Republicans against "dry" Democrats, and that non-churchmen had taken an active part behind the scenes in the "church lobby" at Washington.

FOREIGN OIL IN THE UNITED STATES.

FURTHER AGITATION TO SECURE A HIGH TARIFF
WALL.

[UNITED PRESS.]

Fort Worth, Tex., April 13.—Mr. Wirt Franklin, leader of the independent oil producers and head of the recent expedition to Washington on behalf of a high tariff directed against oil imports by the large American concerns, has called a meeting of the "independents" for April 19 to plan further steps for a campaign urging a petroleum tariff.

This action is understood to be especially directed against the Royal Dutch-Shell Oil concern. Mr. Franklin declares that while the large American companies clamour that there is "overproduction" in the United States, they continue to import foreign oil in large quantities whereas such oil should be barred by a tariff wall to encourage domestic production.

THURSDAY'S GRAND CONCERT.

HALF OF PROCEEDS TO GO TO "SEPOY" FUND.

In connection with the Grand Concert to be held in the New Sailors and Soldiers' Home, on Thursday next, the 24th instant, at 8 o'clock, particulars of which have already appeared in this paper, the committee of the Home have decided to contribute at least half of the proceeds of the concert to the "Sepoy" Relief Fund. Messrs. Anderson's Music Company, Ice House Street, have very kindly undertaken the booking of tickets for the convenience of the public, and it is hoped that generous support will be forthcoming and thus help to swell the funds of a very deserving charity.

Their Excellencies the Officer Administering the Government and the General Officer Commanding have signified their intention of being present, as also the Rear-Admiral in Hong Kong. The programme, which will be appearing in these columns in the course of a few days, has been very carefully compiled and contains items by some of the leading artists in the Colony. A special treat is promised by Miss Violet Capell and some of her pupils, and the public are well advised to secure tickets whilst they are available.

The charge for admission is:—Reserved seats $3; unreserved, $2 and $1. As has been mentioned, these may be secured at Messrs. Anderson's or by telephone message to Mr. W. H. Smith at Central 4830.

THE IRRECONCILABLE DE VALERA.

TYPICAL SPEECH AT SAN FRANCISCO.

[UNITED PRESS.]

San Francisco, April 13.—In a speech delivered here to-day, Eamon de Valera, Irish nationalist leader, declared that, despite its name of "Irish Free State," Ireland was not free.

Neither was Ireland entirely Irish, the Fianna Fail chief asserted, because it was compelled to contribute the equivalent of $26,000,000 a year to pension former British officers, and it was also compelled to pay for the British destruction of Irish property in the Sinn Fein rebellion.

Mr. De Valera reiterated that he could not consider the Irish to be a free people because they still owed allegiance to the King.

Touring the United States, Mr. De Valera is campaigning for funds to establish a newspaper in Ireland to offset those which have been "bought up" by the British.

ANOTHER CRISIS IN THE REICH.

GOVERNMENT TO STAND OR FALL BY FINANCE BILL.

Berlin, April 12.—The second reading of the Bill on the improvement of the Reich's finances began this morning after the Government had received all the amendments and compromise proposals from the various parties. According to a report published by the paper Germania, the organ of the Party of the Centre, the Chancellor of the Reich, Dr. Brüning, has decided to cease further efforts to arrive at a compromise with the parties but instead demands the passage of the Bill as it stands. In case the Finance Bill is rejected, the plenary meeting of the Reichstag will be adjourned in order to give the Cabinet time to consider the situation for a final decision.

LATER.
The Cabinet decided to-night to ask the Reichstag to-morrow to treat the second reading of the Finance Bill as a vote of approval or disapproval of the Government's financial policy. Should the Reichstag not give the Cabinet a majority vote, it will be dissolved.

NEW U.S. HEIGHT RECORD BY ARMY PLANES.

FORTY BELOW ZERO.

[UNITED PRESS.]

Sacramento, Cal., April 12.—Twenty U.S. Army aeroplanes in battle formation to-day achieved what is believed to be an altitude record for such performances when they exceeded a height of 30,000 ft.

Thermometers in the aeroplane cockpits recorded a temperature of 40 degrees below zero Fahrenheit. Visibility was excellent, permitting the pilots to see hundreds of miles into sections of the States of Oregon and Nevada.

The altimeter readings will be officially checked at Washington so that the record can be placed on file in compliance with requirements of the aeronautic boards.

To-day's enterprise was a part of the annual manoeuvres of the U.S. Army Air Corps.

FRIENDLY GAME AT CAROLINE HILL.

At South China Field, Caroline Hill, yesterday, a scratch local nine consisting mostly of South China A.A. men took on the ball outfit from the U.S.S. Mindanao in a friendly game over nine innings which resulted in an easy win for the home team. The game was more in the nature of a "warming-up" for the locals in view of the approaching season and as there was nobody in the official scorer's seat, the scores were not properly recorded. Up till the sixth innings the locals were leading 13-5, and we believe they piled on more in the last three stanzas.

The teams lined-up as under:—

AMERICAN VARSITY BOAT-RACING.

TRIPLE SUCCESS ACHIEVED
BY WASHINGTON.

[UNITED PRESS.]

Seattle, April 12.—Washington State University won the freshman, junior and varsity boat races against California in the annual regatta here.

The varsity event furnished the closest finish. Only three-quarters of a length separated the bows of the two shells as they crossed the line.

The time was 17 min. 46 sec.

WHITE HOUSE RULE BROKEN.

LADY NOMINEE'S TALK WITH HOOVER.

[UNITED PRESS.]

Washington, April 11.—Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick, the Illinois Republican nominee for the Senate, called on President Hoover to-day and talked with him for an hour.

Following their talk, Mrs. McCormick so far strained the customary attitude of silence on White House conversations as to announce to reporters that she and the President had "agreed to disagree" over the World Court.

SAN FRANCISCO AGAINST DRYS.

DAYS OF "STEAM BEER"
WANTED AGAIN.

[UNITED PRESS.]

New York, April 14.—Latest incomplete figures on the "Literary Digest's" nation-wide poll to test prohibition sentiment show that San Francisco stands 4,495 for enforcement of the prohibition law, 12,194 for modification, and 20,112 for repeal.

In pre-prohibition days, San Francisco was a notable stronghold of lusty drinkers, including every variety from the epicures of Italy, France and Spain to the labourers who quaffed schooners of "stem beer" in the district known as "south of the slot"—slot being Market Street.

U.S. MOVE TO STOP SMUGGLING.

SCHEME TO PLACE AGENTS
IN LANDS OF ORIGIN.

Washington, April 14.—The Treasury Department to-day requested that Congress should provide an appropriation which would enable the department to send special agents to foreign countries to prevent smuggling of jewellery, narcotics and other commodities into the United States.

At present the total value of the smuggled goods is estimated at about $840,000,000 a year. Legitimate dealers support the department's move because smuggled goods are thrown upon the markets at prices far below those which can be set by merchants who pay legitimate duties on top of initial costs.

[UNITED PRESS.]

New York, April 14.—Announcement was made to-day by the American Publishers' Association that a total of $300,000,000 was spent by advertisers in newspapers in the United States during the year 1929.

This is the greatest record ever made. Automobile industries alone spent upwards of $64,000,000, according to the statement.

REDS TO HACK WAY TO SWATOW.

REAPPEARANCE OF BANDS IN EAST KWANGTUNG.

PILLAGE AND SECURING OF ARMS THE OBJECTIVE.

A Canton report states that the Reds under Chu Tak and Mo Chak Tung, which vacated the districts along the northern border of Kwangtung a couple of weeks ago, are now reappearing in Eastern Kwangtung. It will be remembered that the roving Reds practically suffered no loss during their invasion of Northern Kwangtung. On the contrary, they obtained large numbers of rifles in consequence of their return, they having disarmed two battalions of the garrison troops and the people's militia in Namhung and Chibing. Before large bodies of troops could be rushed to these districts from Shikwan, the Reds dashed to Southern Kiangsi.

In view of the activities of Communist bands in the districts to the north-west of Swatow, the Reds recently moved from Kiangsi to Eastern Kwangtung, where the garrison troops are busy dealing with the lawless elements. Their object in revisiting the Eastern districts is to plunder the people and to obtain firearms, ammunition, etc., from the garrison troops and people's militia.

It is stated semi-officially that the Reds have arrived at Linping and Waping on the East River and they intend, if they can, to fight their way towards Swatow—their objective.

The Canton Military Headquarters have wired the troops in North-Eastern Kwangtung to drive out the marauders.

THE MASKEE RETURNS TO SWATOW AGAIN.

NO WIND FOR PASSAGE DOWN.

The latest news of the Maskee is to the effect that she has again returned to Swatow, the cause being "no wind." This makes her third unsuccessful effort to come to Hong Kong from that port. It is indeed unfortunate that she has met with such bad luck in the earliest stages of her round-the-world trip.

The master of the Fooshing, which arrived from Swatow at 1 a.m. yesterday, states that when he left that port on Saturday afternoon, he sighted the junk off Double Island where she was anchored. Aboard her were Messrs. Stevenson, Banks and Grenham.

ANTI-JAPANESE FEELING.

ALLEGED MANOEUVRES IN CHINESE WATERS.

Shanghai, April 12.—Reports to the effect that the Japanese destroyers will hold naval manoeuvres near Chusan (off the Chekang coast) within the limits of China's territorial waters on the 16th instant after its return from the Upper Yangtze, have aroused considerable public indignation.

According to the reports, the Japanese destroyers are expected to arrive at Wusong on the 14th and will depart for Chusan on the 16th for the manoeuvres. Manifestations protesting against such alleged insult to the Chinese nation by a friendly Power are being issued by various local civic organizations.

Y.W.C.A. GIRLS IN CLUB CONTEST.

GROUP GAMES FEATURE WEEKLY MEETING.

DISCUSSION ON MEANING OF CLUB MEMBERSHIP.

Forty-five girls from the Yeung Chung Girls School, who have formed into a Y.W.C.A. Wa Kwoong Club, met at the Association rooms Friday afternoon for their regular weekly meeting.

The Club has a plan whereby each section of the Club programme extends over a period of four weeks, thus giving members the opportunity to develop initiative and responsibility through taking charge of the Club meetings as chairman for four consecutive weeks. The regular leaders of this Club are Miss Tung Sia So and Miss Tsang Sing Tak, both of whom are teachers in the Yeung Chung Girls School.

The Club is at present working on a programme unit, the purpose of which is to develop understanding of the meaning of club membership and to establish standards and rules of good sportsmanship through club activities. It is still near the beginning of the new school term, and as many students have come into the upper form, this particular programme unit is designed to give them training for club membership.

In the Confucian Manner.

Friday's programme began with the story of "The Jester's Sword" related to the saying of Confucius, "Muk Taak," the title which he gave to himself when he said that he would use his voice to teach his people, even though it were but like a bell with only a wooden tongue. The story was followed by a discussion on the meaning of club membership: the qualities that go into the making of a good club member; what a girl can get out of club life that is of worth.

A blackboard was used to list the points made, and when the discussion was at an end, it recorded to the credit of club membership in the words of the members—a chance to learn new things and have new experiences; group cooperation; recreation; and the happiness that comes from belonging to a group. Loyalty, honesty, tolerance, courage, fairness were named as the qualities of a good member, and friendship and attainment to executive ability, as among the values of club membership.

Preparations were completed for the Club contest which will culminate in a garden party at the next weekly meeting, when judges will announce the winners in any or all of the following features of the contest: The best interpretation of the meaning of "Pioneer," the best poster on one point of the Club code; the best story illustrating another point of the Club code; the best set of kodak pictures of club life; the best and most varied collection of smoke prints of leaves of big trees; the best club yell given at the garden party.

Group Games.

In the midst of learning the new Club song, an old Chinese tune set to words that tell of a healthy body and a clean heart being the light and strength of a nation, Mrs. Ng Si Seung, the chairman of the Y.W.C.A. Girls Work Department, arrived to be one of the judges in the group games which were to follow, and was given a most enthusiastic welcome. The members divided into four groups for contest games of a kind that offer experience in team work and are helping to establish the club rules and standards of good sportsmanship. The group that has taken to itself the Chinese name that signifies "fearless" carried first place in this contest, scoring 30 points in the four games of 10 points each, and had 18 points to their credit for good team work, fair play and the like.

These relay games were much handicapped because of lack of proper space. The plan was to troop down Ladder Street to the Y.M.C.A. building for this part of the programme, but an important meeting of the Y.M.C.A. made it impossible for the Club to have the use of their space, hence the girls had to play the games with considerable restrictions out of consideration for the other competing groups and the floor supports of the house. All the club girls of the Y.W.C.A. are looking forward eagerly to the time when the Y.W.C.A. can have a larger building with more space for sports activities.

The Hong Kong Y.W.C.A. has now 11 clubs of girls of teen age, enrolling a total membership of 500, among groups of school girls, home girls, industrial workers, muai tai and servant girls and one group from an orphanage. (Continued at foot of next column).

SCHOOL PRINCIPAL'S ESCAPE.

SEQUEL TO RECENT RIOT IN NANKING.

A mild sensation was caused by the escape of Tao Tse Han, the principal of the Heichuang Normal School, on April 10, a day after his arrest by the Gendarmier Headquarters in Nanking on a charge of treason against the Nanking Government by the instigation of his school boys to make capital of the recent labour dispute with the International Export Co., a British firm.

It appears that Tao Tse Han, who was arrested on April 9, taking advantage of his friendship with Commander Ku Cheng Lin, of the Nanking Gendarmier Headquarters, obtained permission to have a consultation with the officials of the Ministry of Education in connection with school affairs the next day after his arrest and on his way to the Ministry effected his escape. It is believed that Tao has gone to Shanghai and is hiding in the French Concession there. Having learnt of what happened, the Nanking authorities have issued a warrant for the arrest of Tao and his associates with a view to tracing the real cause of the recent disturbing incident in the capital.

In the meanwhile, doubt has been raised as to the loyalty of Commander Ku Cheng Lin and an investigation has been instituted as to the nature of the "friendship" which is said to have existed between Commander Ku and Principal Tao, who is now at large.

These groups have varying programmes adapted to their needs and abilities, but one code in common with all the Y.W.C.A. Girls Clubs in China, that offers a challenge to youth to high ideals and a useful life to self and family and country. Miss Heung Chui Kwok, the new National Girls Work Secretary, has been spending some time in Hong Kong, gaining experience and helping in the Girls Clubs activities. She is in Toyshan at present, one of the three rural centres where the Y.W.C.A. has recently opened up work. The Centre at Toyshan was formally organised on March 1, and now has 300 or more girls in Y.W.C.A. Girls Clubs in Hong Kong should enable her to be of help in many ways in furthering the interests of the newer clubs in Toyshan.

CONSERVANCY OF THE YANGTSE.

TEN MILLION-DOLLAR PLAN DRAWN UP.

NANKING, April 12.

The organization of a permanent special committee, to attend to the carrying out of the proposed dredging of the Whangpoo River at Wusung was decided upon at a special meeting of representatives of the Committee for the Reorganization of Commercial Organizations in Shanghai—Municipal Harbour Dredging Bureau, the Kiangsu Provincial Department of Reconstruction, and the Taihu Lake Conservancy Board held yesterday under the auspices of the National Reconstruction Commission.

The proposed Committee, which will also be entrusted with the task of raising and controlling the necessary funds for the project, will be composed of 11 members, one each from the National Reconstruction Commission, River Conservancy Department of the above Commission, Ministry of Finance, Committee for the Reorganization of Commercial Organizations in Shanghai, Wusung River Conservancy Committee, Harbour Dredging Bureau, Taihu Conservancy Board, Kiangsu Provincial Department of Reconstruction, Kiangsu Provincial Department of Finance, Shanghai Special Municipal Harbour Affairs Bureau, and the Bureau of Finance of the Shanghai Special Municipality.

A set of regulations governing the organization and functions of the proposed Committee is now being drafted by the National Reconstruction Commission.

$10,000,000 on the Yangtze.

Surveys of the entire course of the Yangtze River having been completed by the Yangtze River Conservancy Board, a comprehensive plan for dredging and other improvements to the river is being formulated for submission to the Executive Yuan. The total cost of the improvements has been estimated at $10,000,000 and in view of the fact that much of the proposed construction will be done to the part of the river through Euphrat province, the Conservancy Board is now conferring with the Euphrat provincial Government in regard to the raising of funds.

EUROPEAN DESTITUATES SENTENCED.

ABSENT FROM HOUSE OF DETENTION.

Vincent Sullivan, aged 34, and Albert Edward Cavanagh, aged 33, were before Mr. A. G. H. Grantham at the Central Magistracy on Saturday charged with absconding themselves from the House of Detention since April 11.

Both defendants, pleading guilty, said that they did not return, as they were engaged in attempting to find employment on board ships. The second defendant had, in fact, got a job and was going out to purchase clothing when he was arrested.

The first defendant asked that before passing sentence the Magistrate would take into consideration that he had been in bad health during the last few months and he had only recently come out of hospital. He would require medical attention in prison, if convicted, and he hoped that His Worship would make a note of that. He also submitted that he had had a good record, and a conviction now would suggest that he was a criminal, whereas he had not in fact reached that stage.

The case for the prosecution was that the two men left the House of Detention on April 11, and were missing since that date. The men were subsequently located in Kowloon. The Magistrate was told that any destitute detained, if he had means of getting employment outside, would be granted leave to go out, but he must first report to the authorities. The defendants had not complied with this rule.

His Worship sentenced defendants to 10 days' hard labour each.

PROHIBITION TACTICS.

LIQUOR BILL KILLED.

[UNITED PRESS.]

New York, April 12.—After the "wet" had put through the New York Assembly, by vote of 80-60, the Cuvillier Bill which would petition Congress to call a constitutional convention for repeal of the 18th (Prohibition) Amendment, Senator Brown of Schenectady today prevented consideration by the Senate before the State Legislature adjourned sine die.

The petition was accordingly killed and will not be sent to Washington. It is expected, however, that at the next meeting of the Legislature it will be revived and pressed through earlier in the session.

SHANGHAI PRESS AND COUNCIL.

MR. FESSENDEN'S HIGHLY INTERESTING VIEWS.

A USEFUL ALTERNATIVE SUGGESTED.

The opinion that admission of the Press to Council meetings would hamper rather than assist the Council in its deliberations and serve no distinctly useful purpose was expressed by Mr. Sterling Fessenden in an interview with a representative of the N.C. Daily News last week.

The interview had special reference to the resolution advocating the admission of newspaper representatives and the public to Council deliberations under certain conditions, which was defeated at the Ratepayers' Meeting the following day.

A Heterogeneous Press.

The Press in Shanghai was heterogeneous, Mr. Fessenden said, being English, French, Japanese, "White" and "Red" Russian, and Chinese, in addition to some frankly critical journals with fair influence. It would be impracticable, therefore, to ensure that Council proceedings would be comprehensively and fairly reported.

Mr. Fessenden offered an alternative to the proposed admission of the Press. It would be far better, he said, for newspaper representatives to consult the minutes, and draft reports of Council meetings, which were always in his possession. This was not a plan devised to compromise with the present demand for more publicity in Council affairs; it had been in practice for some time and apparently had proved an efficient medium of information.

Exaggeration or Distortion.

"I am a firm believer in publicity," Mr. Fessenden added, "and I have always been of the opinion that publicity in civic affairs is a duty to the community. But, with the exception of a few local journals, the Press in China has not the necessary background to justify its admission to deliberations which, by exaggeration or distortion, might be to the detriment of the ratepayers."

"I think the best way of all would be for Press representatives to come to my office. All documents such as minutes and draft reports are at their disposal. What might interest one newspaper might not be of interest to another, but the whole would be at their disposal and they could select what they wanted."

A Better Way.

"Another factor entering into this question of admission of the Press is this: Under the provision set forth in the resolution which is to be moved at the Ratepayers' Meeting the Press would be asked to leave when matters of a vitally delicate nature are to be discussed. That might happen once, it might happen half a dozen times during a Council meeting. The whole proceeding would be undignified. It would be far better and easier for the Press to come here, as I have said. I will always meet newspaper men, and always have done so. By so doing, they can obtain just as much information as they would by sitting through lengthy discussions which might deal with unimportant matters."

TRANS-SIBERIAN TRAFFIC.

QUESTION TO BE DISCUSSED AT MOSCOW CONFERENCE.

HARBIN, April 11.

The question of through traffic on the C.E.R. and the Trans-Siberian Railway will be discussed at Moscow during the latter part of the month and several members of the Chinese Eastern Railway Administration are proceeding shortly to participate in the conference.

With reference to the C.E.R. dispute, the Director-General Mr. Mo Teh Hui, Mr. Tsai Yun Sen (Chinese delegate to the Harbin Conference), Mr. Melnikov, the local Soviet Consul-General, and the new Soviet Consul at Mukden will hold a preliminary meeting here shortly to discuss various questions concerning the forthcoming formal conference at Moscow.

THE SLUMP IN JAPAN.

Recent cables from Tokyo indicate that considerable anxiety has been aroused in Japan regarding the economic situation. We are told that well-informed foreign observers do not appear to be unduly perturbed at possible future developments. Close students of the present position say that fundamentally the situation in Japan is less serious than conditions existing in most other countries at the present time. No serious development is likely—we are told by Reuters—unless general world conditions get worse. The financial depression in Japan is mainly due to external causes, which accentuate the fact that financial development in Japan has not yet kept pace with industrial development. While it is no doubt true that world conditions have something to do with Japan's present economic troubles, it is also true that she has a very considerable load of purely domestic anxieties. Inasmuch as every country's foreign trade must be affected by world conditions, Japan's commerce is affected, but this is not all the story.

That the present trouble in Japan is not due entirely to external causes is shown by the Reuters message reporting that the associated stock-exchanges of the country have appealed to the Government to take action to "stabilise the situation." Since even the Japanese Government cannot be expected to stabilise anything outside its own dominions, it is obvious that action of some kind within Japanese territory is recommended—proving that the trouble, whatever it may be, is local rather than external. Recent mail advices from Japan indicate what is in the minds of the anxious stockbrokers. There has been a very heavy drop in share quotations. What happened on Wall Street a few months ago has happened, on a smaller scale, on the stock-exchanges in Tokyo, Osaka, and three or four other cities.

There has been a drop in the market value of shares which is estimated at over 3,000 million yen—and stockbrokers and speculators are getting very worried about it. They want the Government to "stabilise" the situation before the slump gets still more serious—in other words, that public funds be employed to keep share quotations up to an inflated value. The stockbrokers consider the slump in shares is a much more serious matter than the slump in cotton-yarn and silk, and—as is always the case in Japan—look to the Government to do what is needful to save fools being made to pay for their folly.

About ten days ago there was a heavy slump in the shares of the Kanagafuchi Spinning Company—the largest textile concern in Japan. On April 8 old shares were quoted at about 107 yen and new at 84 yen; three days later the quotations stood at 190 and 77 yen respectively—a "loss" of about 114 million yen in the market value of the company's stock. This slump was due, not to "external causes" or "world conditions," but to trouble between the management and the operatives, arising out of a decision to cease payment of extra allowances, first instituted during the war, and continued until now. This decision affects some 40,000 operatives in thirty-six mills, and while it appears the company's action is being strongly resisted by the workers, nevertheless other large industrial concerns are either taking or contemplating action on similar lines to those followed by the Kanagafuchi Company. Rightly or wrongly, labor in Japan regards this move by the greatest cotton-spinning concern in the country as a definite attack deliberately launched against the workers. Wrongly or rightly, employers generally are suspected of having determined to cut down wages in order to keep up dividends, and from recent advices it seems that the workers are preparing to resist this policy. While it may be true to say that economic conditions in Japan are less serious than those prevailing in most other countries, it is certainly untrue to say that the present trouble is mainly due to external causes. The issue is as domestic as it is definite—it is the old conflict between capital and labour, and the peculiar politico-social conditions existing in Japan are such that any dispute on that issue is apt to take a dangerous turn.

Since writing the foregoing, news comes from Tokyo fully confirming the opinion expressed as to the seriousness of the situation. A decision by the Tokyo Municipality to reduce the bonus paid to its tram and motor-bus staff has led to the employees declaring a strike as from Sunday. Steps are being taken by the authorities to keep communications running with the help of volunteer drivers, and no doubt it will be possible to maintain a skeleton service, but the temper of the Japanese workers is apt to take an ugly turn at such times as these, and it will not be surprising if some serious clashes occur between the strikers and the police. It is now perfectly clear that the trouble in Japan is not due to external causes, as was suggested by Reuters, but to industrial unrest. The trade-union movement in Japan is not strong in numbers, but such organisations as do exist have pledged themselves to support the Kanagafuchi Company's employees, and the action taken by the municipal tram and motor-bus staffs is a direct sequel.

A further charge against trick cyclists was made when the Police prosecuted Chau Yiu Wing, aged 18 years, for riding in a manner dangerous to the public. The case came before Mr. A. G. H. Grant-ham at the Central Police Court on Saturday, when the Magistrate was informed that this was a particularly bad case, as defendant was found to be giving an exhibition of trick cycling, and was attempting to pick up a handkerchief while riding on his bike. A fine of $25 was imposed.

A big haul of red pills (containing narcotic drugs) was made by members of the Greater Shanghai Bureau of Public Safety on a fishing-boat on April 13. It appeared that the members of the Bureau, after receiving a report to the effect that a quantity of opium was on the boat, which was lying on a creek near the Hungio Flying Field, raided the vessel and seized no less than 300,000 red pills. Three Chinese on the boat were arrested and sent to the Public Safety Bureau for punishment.

A correspondent writes:—"I thoroughly agree with your recent criticism in reference to 'Young Woodley,' the play which Mr. Salisbury has been kind enough to show us. It certainly could be banned for 50 years without any great loss! The players certainly 'fell down' after prostrating characters as they did so excellently in that great play 'Journey's End' (what a thing to remember of) and I am sure they felt it themselves—not their fault—but that of a weak and most uninteresting play!"

Problems of the education of Japanese children in Shanghai have been explained to Mr. Fessenden, Director-General of the International Settlement, by Mr. Hayashi, Chairman of the Japanese Amalgamated Association of Street Unions, in a visit made by the latter to the S.M.C. offices. At present there are 2,800 Japanese school-children in Shanghai, attending the six schools founded by the Japanese community, but it is hoped to add a middle school as well to cater for their increased needs.

While in Sydney, Australia, Hagen, the golf champion, was asked whether he had ever holed out in one. "Sure," said Hagen. "I have done that twice, once on the Eastern Coast of the States and once on the West. The first time was at Worcester, Mass. Just before the American championship, Bobby Jones, Joe Kirkwood, Tommy Armour, and myself had a friendly foursome. We came to the 6th hole. The wind was blowing a little, and everybody decided it was a No. 2 iron shot. My No. 2 had a cracked shaft, however, so I used a No. 1. I borrowed a new ball from Jones, and thought to myself, 'I'll just take it easy.' It is a 180 yards hole, but the ball went in. It was the first of the month, my first hole in one, the first time the hole had been done in one, the first time the ball had been used, and it was a No. 1 iron. 'What about the 18th hole and prohibition?' Hagen was asked. 'I guess we borrowed some,' came the answer."

The Chinese steamer Foo Kong, owned by Messrs. Wen Kee & Co., of Shanghai, was particularly unfortunate when leaving the port of Tientsin for Chinwangtao last week. Shortly after leaving the French Bank she collided with the Chinese steamer Pei Ming, lying at the Hotang side of the river, breaking away one of the stations and the taffrail. Continuing her course she ran into the Japanese steamer Kanan Maru at the O.S.K. Wharf, inflicting slight damage, and not apparently content with two collisions, she again proceeded down river and bumped into the Keizan Maru at the K.Y.K. Wharf on the British Bund. Fortunately, the Foo Kong had not much headway, and the damage inflicted on the three steamers was not of such a nature as to necessitate repairs which would delay their departure. The Foo Kong's unsteady progress down stream is supposed to have been due to shallow water and a strong wind. The Foo Kong was being towed down river by a tug boat when the three mishaps occurred.

A New Picture Puzzle.

Two hearts that beat as one long has been a pretty figure of speech, but now that the "talkies" have come in, two cameras which silently run as one has become an accomplished fact. In the filming of "Broadway," the Universal picture now being screened at the Queen's Theatre with Glenn Tryon and Evelyn Brent, two cameras actually ran themselves for thousands of feet of film, without being touched by human hands, and ran themselves in perfect union. A single track was recorded in the laboratory for the two angles of action. This gave continuous sound track, and made it possible to cut from angle to angle without spoiling the continuity. More angles can be used according to the number of cameras employed. In the Night Club scenes eight sound-proof cameras were used and one sound track made, making cutting a problem in higher mathematics.

A party of 18 American magazine writers arrived in Yokohama last week at the invitation of Japanese tourist organizations to spend two months in Japan, Korea, Manchuria, North China, and Formosa, "viewing the scenery and observing conditions." Expenses of the tour, it is understood, are being borne by the Japanese transportation and tourist organizations, which expect the already extensive American tourist trade to be increased by the articles to be contributed to American magazines by the writers.

Secret Publicity.

Things are done in a very curious way at times in this Colony. Here is an example. Last week a committee meeting was held to discuss a draft of the address of welcome to be presented to Sir William Peel on his arrival in Hong Kong. No intimation was given to the English newspapers of this meeting, nor was any expected, since such proceedings are always regarded as private. We note, however, that the Chinese papers publish an account of the meeting, and we understand that their reporters were invited to attend the proceedings. Who issued the invitation we do not know, nor do we know why the Chinese reporters were not asked to withdraw when their presence at a private meeting was discovered, for there was no effort to conceal their identity. If it is desired that these proceedings in committee be reported, an intimation to that effect should be sent to all newspapers. If, however, these discussions are meant to be private—as is usually the case—then steps should be taken (1) to ascertain who invited the Chinese reporters to attend; and (2) to prevent any further abuse of confidence. It is obviously improper that Chinese journals should be given the opportunity of obtaining information which is not only withheld from the English papers but must surely be regarded by most members of the Committee as information never intended for publication.

As Others See Us.

Thus the Straits Times in a recent issue: "The Kowloon Magistrate has been recently conducting an energetic offensive against that very annoying individual the 'trick cyclist.' Apparently these reckless youths in the Hong Kong suburb are every where determined to commit suicide with the maximum possible danger to the community at large as are their prototypes in Singapore. Their modus operandi, too, is exactly the same. After careful observation they choose the most congested thoroughfares, and the busiest hours of the day, for the free public exhibition of their acrobatic skill. Usually mounted on low-gearred machines, specially suited to the purpose, they shut their eyes—or at least appear to do so—and proceed to describe circles, figures of eight and other 'fascinating' geometrical figures in the centre of the road. Sometimes, without warning, the back pedal haul and endeavour to stand still on their machines right in the track of some oncoming car, which has to apply all available brakes or mount the side-walk in order to avoid them. These cyclists would, no doubt, be a valuable acquisition to a circus, but as a contribution to the solution of the traffic problem they leave much to be desired. 'I think Kowloon is a place for push-bicycles,' said the worthy magistrate a few days ago, and most local motorists, no doubt, will murmur 'Ditto Singapore.' A few such fines as have been imposed in Kowloon recently would have a salutary effect in this city."

Looking Back 25 Years.

The new Peak Tramway has advanced another stage. We hear that a compromise is probable with regard to the terminus of the new track, and that an influential combination of interests is being arranged. At present reports appear to be in the confidential stage.—Hong Kong Daily Press, April 21, 1905.

The question has been asked do the Chinese make puns? See! a large native craft was the day we remarked to a bystander: "Is that a fo shan (steamer)?" The change of course, was nothing more than the of the tone from second or upper rising to third or upper departing.—Hong Kong Daily Press, April 18, 1880.

INSURGENTS ATTACK POLICE AT CHITTAGONG.

GRAVE SITUATION IN INDIA.

TROOPS RUSHED TO SCENE BY GOVERNMENT.

VICEROY ISSUES ANTI-TERRORIST ORDINANCE.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

CALCUTTA, April 19. The Government announce that 100 insurgents attacked and gutted the railway and police armories at Chittagong last night.

Details are not known, but it appears that the insurgents shot dead one sergeant-major, one Anglo-Indian and four Indians.

As far as can be ascertained, all civilian railway employees, women and children are safe and accommodated at the jetties.

Troops Rushed to Scene.

A communique states that the police and local auxiliary force are endeavouring to round up the insurgents.

A detachment of the Eastern Frontier Rifles, commanded by Lieut. Colonel Dallas Smith, was despatched today and is expected to reach Chittagong to-morrow morning. The Inspector-General of Police accompanied the detachment.

Telegraphic communications were interfered with but are being restored. A train was derailed last night forty miles from Chittagong. The line was blocked but transhipment is being effected.

Assembly Takes Precautions.

SIMLA, April 19. The news of the insurgence at Chittagong reached Simla when the Legislative Assembly Committee was sitting. Sir Bhupindra Mitra, who was presiding, immediately went to Viceroy's Lodge, where the Executive Council considered the situation in Bengal and elsewhere.

While the insurgent movement at Chittagong is serious, the trouble is localised and the Government expects confidently to suppress it and round up the insurgents. The military and police precautions were reviewed by the Council.

The situation is well under control throughout the country. While it is expected that terrorists, by taking advantage of the unrest caused by Gandhi's campaign, may try a fresh onslaught, the Government is fully armed to deal with such movements and there is no fear that they will be widespread. Chittagong has always been considered the centre of the anarchist movement.

SOVIET ORDERS FOR BRITAIN.

HELP FOR CHEMICAL INDUSTRY.

TYPHOON STRIKES PHILIPPINES.

TWO TOWNS DESTROYED.

HEAVY DEATH-ROLL EXPECTED.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

MANILA, April 20.

The east coast island of Leyte was swept on April 18 by a destructive off-season typhoon and fourteen towns were hit. Tolosa and Dulag are reported to have been virtually demolished and thousands are homeless. Deaths and injuries cannot be ascertained.

The first reports which reached Manila were 48 hours delayed. The Governor of Leyte, writing Dr. Charles H. Forster, Director of the American Red Cross in Manila, said: "Please secure immediate aid for 1,000 homeless people, specially food, clothing and building materials."

The typhoon was of small area but of unusual intensity, and came as a surprise to the Weather Bureau authorities as typhoons never occur at this time of year in the Philippines.

The Governor's message describes coconut trees in the devastated areas standing like candles. The tops were blown off and crops were completely destroyed. Many towns were flooded by the heavy rain accompanying the storm.

Many places have not reported as wires are down and communication has been cut off, and it is feared that the death roll will be large. Reports will not be complete for a week or two.

The Red Cross is taking immediate action, and is organising provincial forces in Leyte and Samar. It is arranging to send doctors, nurses and relief supplies by the first transportation available.

TOKYO FIGHTS TRAMWAY STRIKE.

GOOD WORK BY VOLUNTEERS.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

TOKYO, April 20. Despite the general strike of busmen and tramwaymen, a fairly good service has been maintained on the principal routes by volunteers who appear to be enjoying the novelty of the experience, and are receiving plenty of good-natured chaff from passengers.

A number of collisions between trams and buses have occurred owing to the inexperience of the volunteer drivers. Several casualties have resulted, though only four people have been seriously injured.

TO REGULATE HOURS OF WORK.

NEW GOVERNMENT BILL.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LONDON, April 17.

A Government Bill has been introduced into the House of Commons by Miss Margaret Bondfield, the Minister of Labour, to regulate the hours of work in industrial undertakings. The new bill is based on the Washington Hours Convention of 1919.

It limits the ordinary hours of work to eight daily and forty-eight weekly ("statutory limits"), but variations in the daily hours of work are allowed.

The hours of workers engaged in industries and in other employments where continuous processes must be operated will, under the Bill, be allowed to average fifty-six hours a week over three weeks. The Bill also makes provision for the working of overtime and provides that overtime must not exceed thirty-two hours in any one month. It is also provided that the pay for overtime must be at least at the rate of time and quarter.

It is also provided that the Minister must consult the organisations representing the employers and workers before regulating the arrangement of working hours.

A Clerical workers, home workers, sea going people, those working underground in collieries and agriculturists are among the classes of workers to which the new Bill does not apply.

he of the liveliest with the Opposition attacking the Government on three main points, business depression, unemployment and the failure to insist on the three primary claims of the Naval Conference.

COMING U.S. "NAVAL ACTION."

POLITICS AND NEW TREATY.

BIG CAMPAIGN BY "BIG NAVY PARTY."

[REUTER'S AMERICAN SERVICE.]

WASHINGTON, April 19.

Political groups are preparing their decks for a "naval action" which President Hoover hopes will be short and decisive, immediately on the Naval delegation's return from London with the treaty, otherwise the Parliamentary programme will be delayed until January.

"Big navyites" are actively campaigning but President Hoover is confident of support from public opinion. He is credited with the intention of making a wireless appeal throughout the country to the people on the day the treaty is submitted to the Senate.

Senator Hale, Chairman of the Senate Naval Committee, who is in no way friendly towards the treaty, to day urged Senators to withhold action until the committee has heard the technical experts.

Meanwhile Government circles expect that the first seven 10,000-ton cruisers allotted to America will be laid down before 1933, and the remaining three laid down in 1933-34 respectively.

American Comment.

WASHINGTON, April 11.

The opinion prevails in informed circles here that the inability of the London Five-Power Naval Limitation Conference to reach an agreement equivalent to President Hoover's earlier hopes has resulted in failure of the programme of the complete pre-conference survey.

Observers point out that three of the Five Powers involved preceded the formal conference by personal contacts and conversations on the part of their high officials. It is felt that these preliminary contacts advanced matters to as great a degree as has been achieved by the conference itself.

The Administration is understood, however, to consider that additional definite results have been accomplished. Certainly from a political point of view the Administration forces will make a strong effort to combat any sentiment that the conference has been a complete fiasco, since this would make a black mark against the Hoover record which would be harmful both to the President's chances for a second term and for the Republican party as a whole.

Mr. Hoover's Gratification.

President Hoover announced today that the abolition of competition in naval building among the "Three Powers" at the present London Naval Limitation Conference—the United States, Great Britain and Japan, omitting France and Italy—would save these three countries a total of $2,500,000,000.

Terms of the new undertaking among these Powers will be agreed to next week in London, according to the President.

The estimates at the Geneva Conference provided for an anticipated saving of between $1,400,000,000 and $1,600,000,000. And it was emphasized that the new treaty is the only political undertaking which provides for the "humanizing" of submarines.

The United States alone is expected to save about $1,000,000,000 under the new arrangement. President Hoover praised what he termed the "courageous and constructive action" of the American delegates to the London Conference.

He said that for some time it had been apparent to him that a Five-Power Treaty would be impossible due to the difficulties in coming to agreement between the French and Italian delegations. A Three Power Treaty, in his opinion, should be considered a great step toward world peace.

He disclosed that the proposed agreement provides for the summoning of another conference in 1936 to adjust details of naval buildings and other matters which may arise in the interim.

New York Press Opinions.

New York, April 12.

The newspapers congratulate Mr. Ramsay MacDonald upon obtaining something tangible from the Naval Conference.

The New York Times pays a tribute to Mr. MacDonald as a "statesman and not a narrow-minded chauvinist or a pettifogging politician" and says "of the latter species there will undoubtedly be samples enough in our Senate when the Naval treaties come under consideration."

CANTON STRUCK BY TYPHOON.

SUDDEN BLOW BRINGS DEATH AND DESTRUCTION.

SAMPANS CAPSIZED ON RIVER.

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.]

CANTON, April 20.

A sudden typhoon struck Canton last Friday afternoon, causing huge damage to property and the loss of a number of lives. The sky became darkened all of a sudden, and the wind blew with terrific velocity. A few minutes later there was a heavy downpour with thunder and lightning. Loose and dangling windows, signboards and palm leaves from matchsheds were blown down, injuring more or less seriously nine persons. Several big banyans were uprooted. On the river several sampans capsized, involving the loss of two lives.

After the rain had ceased, the wind and lightning continued. The worst came at about 7 p.m. when a thunderbolt struck a big electric transformer near the Power House, plunging over nine-tenths of Canton, including all the business sections, in total darkness. Other transformers were affected and there were flashes of electricity in every direction, killing two pedestrians outright. Owing to the darkness, a large number of shops had to close for the night at an unusually early hour. All the newspaper reporters, editors and printers refused to work in the dark, and there were no newspapers published in the city the next morning, Saturday.

TO MEET MR. HOOVER AND NEWSPAPER MEN.

[UNITED PRESS.]

Washington, April 14.—A delegation of Japanese "good-will maidens" arrived here today.

They will be the guests of Mr. Debuchi the Ambassador at dinner to-night. To-morrow they will visit the famous cherry trees, a gift from Japan, on the banks of the Potomac. They will also speak over a radio broadcast, meet President Hoover and have luncheon with newspaper men.

Later they are to be guests at many receptions.

The delegation of five girls was selected through the efforts of the "Jiji Shimpō," a Tokyo daily newspaper, to visit the leading cities of the United States to thank the American people for help extended Japan at the time of the great earthquake and fire which devastated Tokyo, Yokohama and adjacent areas in September, 1923.

The girls embarked for San Francisco last month, immediately before the celebrations marking completion of the reconstruction of Tokyo and Yokohama.

The New York World however, sees real danger in the terms of the Treaty, which it says "carry a threat of building competition between groups of nations, and many cause the proposed agreement to be regarded in the course of time as a disguised alliance of the three largest Naval Powers, thus involving the United States in a policy of 'instability manoeuvres and competition in European politics'."

CHIANG DENOUNCED IN PEPING.

BIG PRO-KUOMINCHUN DEMONSTRATION.

REQUEST TO FOREIGN POWERS.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

PEIPING, April 19.

A mass demonstration was held at Tienanmen this morning to denounce Chiang Kai Shek. A crowd of twenty thousand was presided over by a representative of the Mayor and was attended by representatives of the Hopei Provincial Assembly, the Headquarters Commandant, various unions and student bodies.

Ten resolutions were passed, the chief of which urged Wang Ching Wei to go to Peking, requested Chang Hsueh Liang to take up the post of Vice-Commander of the Anti-Chiang expedition, asked the Second Plenary Session to control all party affairs, and requested the foreign Powers not to make loans to Nanking.

The Kuominchun claim that Han Fu Chu has surrendered to Feng Yu Hsiang.

A Rumour Denied.

PEIPING, April 20.

There is no confirmation of the report that Han Fu Chu has gone over to Feng. On the contrary it is believed that he is at Tsinanfu assisting in the organisation of the Shantung defences for the Central Government. There is also no confirmation of the Japanese report that Sun Tien Ying, with 40,000 men, is menacing Pengpu.

DEMONSTRATION BY "RED" STUDENTS.

FIFTY ARRESTED IN PEPING.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

PEIPING, April 20.

Communist students demonstrated in a college off Hatamen Street this afternoon, acclaiming the Red victories in Kiangsi and denouncing Nationalism. The police raided the college and arrested over fifty students.

RENDITION OF WEIHAWEI.

AGREEMENT SIGNED.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

NANKING, April 19.

It is officially announced that the agreement for the rendition of Weihaivei to China was signed last night by Sir Miles Lampson and Dr. C. T. Wang.

PEKING OR PEPING?

BATTLE OF NAMES IN THE NORTH.

[UNITED PRESS.]

A new Chinese war is in prospect—the war of the names—and the atlas makers of the world are apt to be among the casualties. It will be recalled that an incident of the Nationalist conquest of China was the changing of the name of the former capital, Peking (meaning "northern capital"), to Peiping ("northern peace"). At the same time Nanking, "southern capital," was made capital of the country.

New rumblings of civil war from the northward have brought the announcement that the rebels wish the "capital of the Chinese Government" to be re-established at Peiping, which is to have its former name of Peking. At the same time Nanking is to be known as Nanping, meaning "southern peace," if the Northerners have their way.

The recognized National Government, however, is not to be expected to take tamely to these ideas. Remaining at the city which it will presumably continue to call Nanking, it will cast defiance at the existence either of a Peking or of any national capital elsewhere than at Nanking, to say nothing of the existence of such a city as Nanping.

It will be seen that life might easily become very complicated for the telegraph editors of the newspapers in New York, London, Berlin and elsewhere. From a correspondent North China such a telegraph editor might receive a despatch emanating from "Peking" and declaring that the Government has launched a south-bound offensive at the outlaw pseudo-Government at Nanping, formerly Nanking; while simultaneously a despatch from "Nanking" would state the intention of the Government to drive northward against the arrogant self-styled Government at Peiping, one-time Peking. By the time the matter were untangled there might be an entirely new set of names and Governments.

SENIOR LEAGUE FOOTBALL ENDS.

SOMERSETS DEFEAT SOUTH CHINA AT CAROLINE HILL TO OCCUPY THIRD PLACE.

FULL DETAILS OF SATURDAY'S GAMES.

Somerset L.I. complete season's fixtures with a win over South China and take the third position in the League table.

Club de Recreio failed to turn out against the Hong Kong F.C. in a re-arranged match.

Interest in the junior division championship still continues. The Royal Navy Reserves can equal the K.O.S.B. in points and have a better goal average. China Athletic "A" are favourably placed and much will depend on their game with the Navy on Wednesday next. They are two points behind the Navy, with three games in hand.

Saturday's games in the Hong Kong League resulted as under:—

Division I
Somerset L.I.	1 South China..... 0
Division II
Navy Res.	8 Ewo, Chinese. 1
S. China	5 Chinese "B"..... 1
Chinese "A"	2 University..... 1

SOUTH CHINA v. SOMERSETS.

These teams completed their season's fixtures when they met at Caroline Hill, the S.L.I. winning by the only goal scored.

Several South China players were cautioned by the referee for rough play. The line out was as under:—

South China:—Pau Ka Ping; Li Ting Sang and Lau Mau; Leung Yin Chan, Wong Mee Shun and Leung Wing Chui; Tong Kwan, Tam Kong Pak, Pau Ka Chuen, Leung Wing Tak and Ip Pak Wah.

Somerset L.I.:—Hall; Niel and Hayward; Huish, West and Harris; Rayson, Knapp, Earley, Dennard and Butcher.

Referee: Mr. F. Smith.

There was a large crowd present when Pau Ka Chuen set the ball in motion. The home team at once made ground and Hall cleared from Pau. The S.L.I. then got into their stride and the home defence did well to keep them out. Play was very fast and even, each goalkeeper being called upon in turn. The visitors almost got home when Knapp turned in from a pass by Rayson but Pau Ka Ping was in the right place and cleared.

South China were not lacking in attack and the S.L.I.'s defence had a busy time. The defence on both sides held the upper hand and there was no scoring before the interval.

South China had the misfortune to lose Leung Wing Tak just before the interval.

South China resumed with ten players but quite held their own. Pau Ka Ping was applauded for saving a fast shot from Butcher and another shot from the winger was turned behind by Lau Mau. The S.L.I. pressed strongly and were rewarded when Rayson met a pass from Butcher and banged the ball into the net, giving Pau no chance.

The pace continued very fast but the South China front line badly missed Leung Wing Tak for with only four forwards they could make little headway against a sound defence. The exchanges were on the rough side in the closing minutes. The final whistle sounded with the S.L.I. winning as above.

DIVISION II.

NAVY RESERVES v. EWO, CHINESE.

This fixture, arranged for Wednesday last, was played on the Hong Kong F.C. ground on Saturday, the Navy winning by the large margin of eight goals to one. From the kick off the Navy went out to increase their goal average, this being their only chance of winning the junior championship. The Navy opened the score from a free kick twenty yards out, Hobbs beating Lau Hing Cheung with a fast shot. Ewo soon levelled up, Fung King Yu beating Bines from close range. Potts and Gould scored for the Navy before the interval. Half-time: Navy Reserves 3, Ewo 1.

The Navy put on pressure when play resumed and Gould was unlucky with a shot that hit the post and rebounded to play. Ewo still forced the game and were unlucky when Fung missed by inches only. Potts increased the Navy lead and Cardy, following up from a mistake by Chung Chun Ying, went in and beat Lau to score the Navy's fifth goal. The Navy continued to over-run their opponents, and goals by Gould, Gould and Morgan gave them the victory by eight goals to one when the final whistle sounded.

CHINESE ATHLETIC "B" v. SOUTH CHINA "A."

These teams met at the North Point Stadium, South China winning by five goals to one.

The game started with South China fielding nine players only. They attacked from the kick off and Lai Kai Hoi gave them an early lead. South China again got down and Ng Po Kim added to their score. The Athletic made several raids on the South China goal but their finish was weak. Ng Po Kim increased South China's score who were leading at the interval by three clear goals.

South China pressed when the game resumed and a shot from Ng Po Kim hit the post and from the rebound Ng cleared the bar. South China forced a corner, which the Athletic cleared and a fine solo effort by Chow Wing Hung gave the Athletic their only goal of the match. Goals by Lau Kwok Lu and Lai Kai Hoi gave South China "A" the victory by the margin of five goals to one.

UNIVERSITY F.C. v. CHINESE ATHLETIC "A."

These teams met at North Point Stadium, Chinese Athletic winning by two goals to one. The University surprised the Athletic in the second half of the game and with a little luck would have shared the points. Opening with a strong attack, the University got close in but Wong Yung Sing made a fine clearance.

The Athletic got down but found Oppenheim safe in the Students' goal. Good work by Lee Fong led up to the Athletic opening the scores. Sui Kim Chor beating Oppenheim from close range. With this success the Athletic put on pressure and Shek Pui Tim headed into the net from a pass by Lee Fong.

Half-time: Chinese Athletic 2, University F.C. 0.

The University set up a strong attack on play being resumed but the Athletic defence was sound. At the other end, Lo Wai Man missed from a good position. The University returned and Wong Yung Sing did well to stop a shot from Chung. Before the final whistle sounded Cheung scored for the University, the Athletic winning a very keenly contested game by the odd goal in three.

KOWLOON F.C. v. COMBINED CHINESE.

Playing on the Railway ground in a friendly game, Kowloon defeated a Chinese team by six goals to one.

The following games are down for decision to-day:—

HOME FOOTBALL RESULTS.

NEW LEADERS IN THE SECOND DIVISION.

BLACKPOOL AND CHELSEA IN THE LEAD FOR PROMOTION.

EVERTON DOOMED FOR RELEGATION.

The Easter holiday football matches provided keen competition for promotion prospects, while those who stand at the bottom of the divisions strained their efforts to avoid relegation. It looks almost certain that Everton will lose their place in the First Division, and either Newcastle or Grimsby will also drop out. The two latter teams secured full points on both days, while Everton were not so successful in their second effort.

An important change took place in the Second Division where Blackpool gained the lead, followed by Chelsea, and Oldham, the leaders up to the previous week, dropped to third place. Plymouth are now sure of promotion to the Second Division. Port Vale had the better of Stockport by one point in their struggle for promotion and it still seems uncertain which of them will top the list.

After winning the League and the Scottish Cup, the Rangers came in for their fourth defeat of the season.

LADY BOWLERS AT TAIKOO.

RINK COMPETITION ON OPENING DAY.

PRESIDENT TURNS THE SCALE.

An enjoyable afternoon was spent at the Taikoo Recreation Club on Saturday when the lawn bowls greens were thrown open for the season. Many visitors were present at the opening day celebration, and credit is due to those who were at the back of the movement to make everything pleasant for the large gathering.

Six mixed rink games were played between teams representing the President and Vice-Presidents. When the scores were added up at the end of the game, which went to fifteen heads, a difficulty arose as to which side qualified to receive spoons, as the score stood even, with 60 shots on each side.

An extra head to decide the point was played on the rink skipped by Messrs. Witherspoon and Ferguson. The decision went in favour of the President's rink amid much excitement, and incidentally it was the wood rolled by the President (Mr. T. H. R. Shaw) which took up a charmed position near the jack and failed to be moved by either the Vice-President or the opposing skip.

The ladies fully justified their inclusion in the team by assisting the men to the best of their ability, and not a few of them got "sitters" on the jack which baffled the men.

THE COTTON TRAIL OF RUIN. WEALTHY MAGNATE BE- COMES SERVANT.

The tragic cotton trail of Lancashire is lined with ruined homes and lost fortunes.

Every day a new story is being told of the straits to which traders have been reduced, and they serve to emphasize the necessity for the National Cotton Week, now being organized, during which Lancashire goods are to be "pushed" in drapery stores throughout England.

A man with a life-long reputation as a successful trader fought the losing battle till he lost £300,000.

One formerly well-to-do merchant, who came to the end of his tether, quickly dismissed his domestic staff, sold his motor-car to pay his debts, and took a job as a servant.

Another trader received the news of his fall from opulence to penury by telephone, after carrying on, hoping against hope for months. He hung up the receiver with the words, "And that's that!" Twelve hours later his home was abandoned to his creditors.

STUDY OF CHINESE IN LONDON. COMMERCIAL CLASSES.

The report on the China Association's Incorporated School of Practical Chinese, at the School of Oriental Studies, for the Session 1928-1929, is encouraging. The total number of students was 35, of whom 38 were commercial students, 12 educational students (including four women) and nine were missionaries (five being women). With the exception of one who studied Ning-po, all were students of Mandarin. Of the educational students, two were studying for degrees, and one was engaged in research.

With regard to the Commercial classes, a new development bids fair to increase the efficiency of the department. It has been decided by the Governing Body to grant First and Second Commercial Certificates to students who pass satisfactory examinations. The first examinations for these certificates were held at the end of the session under review, for which ten students sat for the First Commercial Certificate, of whom six passed, and two for the Second Commercial Certificate, of whom one passed and one, who failed to obtain the required number of marks, was, however, on the merits of his papers, given a statement to the effect that his work more than reached the standard required for the First Commercial Certificate. The effect of this new departure upon the quality of the work in these classes has been distinctly good. The students have an incentive, which has markedly increased their interest in their work.

The number of students was an increase of seven as compared with the previous year, despite the fact that the women students were nine less.

SERIOUS RIOTS IN BRADFORD.

STRIKERS AND POLICE IN CONFLICT.

London, April 12.—The Bradford wool-strike which put nearly 100,000 men out of employment, has led to serious riots in the course of which the police were stoned. Several policemen were injured and a number of people were arrested. The strike was caused by the attempt of the mill-owners to enforce a reduction in the wages of nine per cent. In some quarters it is expected that a general strike of the English textile industry may break out on Monday.

NEW "DRY" WAR ON BRITAIN.

MASSED ATTACK BY 300,000 ARMY.

A new intensive campaign to turn Great Britain "dry" is now in preparation, with help from the United States. The campaign will be carried on for two years by the World Prohibition Federation.

A large number of American speakers, including prominent Prohibitionists, are expected to take part in the campaign, which, it is intended, shall culminate with a convention of 12,000 delegates in Edinburgh and an exhibition "illustrating the effects of alcohol" in London. There will also be a pageant with the evils of alcohol as a background, and a great procession through London to Hyde Park.

The first shots in the new war were fired when delegates representing ninety-seven temperance societies formed a national committee of 1,000 men and women to conduct the campaign.

An Executive committee to carry out the details of the campaign will be appointed by this national committee," said Mr. Guy Hayler, president of the World Prohibition.

"During the next two years we shall make the greatest effort yet made to win Britain over to temperance."

The committee will enrol an army of 300,000 men and women belonging to the temperance movement. They will conduct mass meetings in every town, village, and hamlet in the country.

They will also help to collect a fund of £20,000 to carry on the work. A central office will be established in London.

Millions of pamphlets, books, leaflets, and letters will be distributed throughout the country.

"We expect 2,000,000 people at least will take part in this movement. They will be drawn from the 10,000,000 teetotalers computed to exist in this country."

Sir HERBERT MATTHEWS,

Formerly Secretary, Central Chamber of Agriculture of England says:—

In the case of New Zealand Perpetual Forests I am perfectly satisfied that the necessary provisions have been made to protect investors, and I am also satisfied that every undertaking given by the company is being adequately and efficiently fulfilled. The company makes it clear in its prospectus that the financial returns from the plantations, when the forests are mature and realisable for pulpwood or timber, are necessary and justified. The company has, however, sought the honest and competent opinion of experts as to the financial returns that can reasonably be expected from each crop, and I think that bondholders can look forward with confidence to receiving returns in due course that will at least approximate their estimates, and may perhaps exceed them.

STAGE STARS DEAD LOVERS.

DEATH OF TRAGIC BEAUTY.

As dramatic as any of the tragedies in which she has played is the life story of Lillian Castagnola, a beautiful Italian actress, who has died at Naples, aged 39.

Her short stage career was strewn with love romances, all of which ended in disaster.

Castagnola, a tall, fascinating brunette, married in 1920, and had one child. While it was still a baby, however, she abandoned domestic life and went on the stage. Known as La Castagnola, she rose to the first rank, and enjoyed enormous popularity. Tragedy, however, began to overshadow her life.

At Milan a wealthy banker fell in love with her, and in a fit of rage shot her and committed suicide.

She recovered and returned to the stage.

Later a rich marquis fell in love with her and bought her a villa. He lavished on her innumerable luxuries, and in a short time had squandered his fortune.

Another love affair resulted in a rich Roman merchant ruining himself like the marquis. He also committed suicide.

Another young member of the aristocracy fell in love with La Castagnola and took his life during a performance at a Naples theatre.

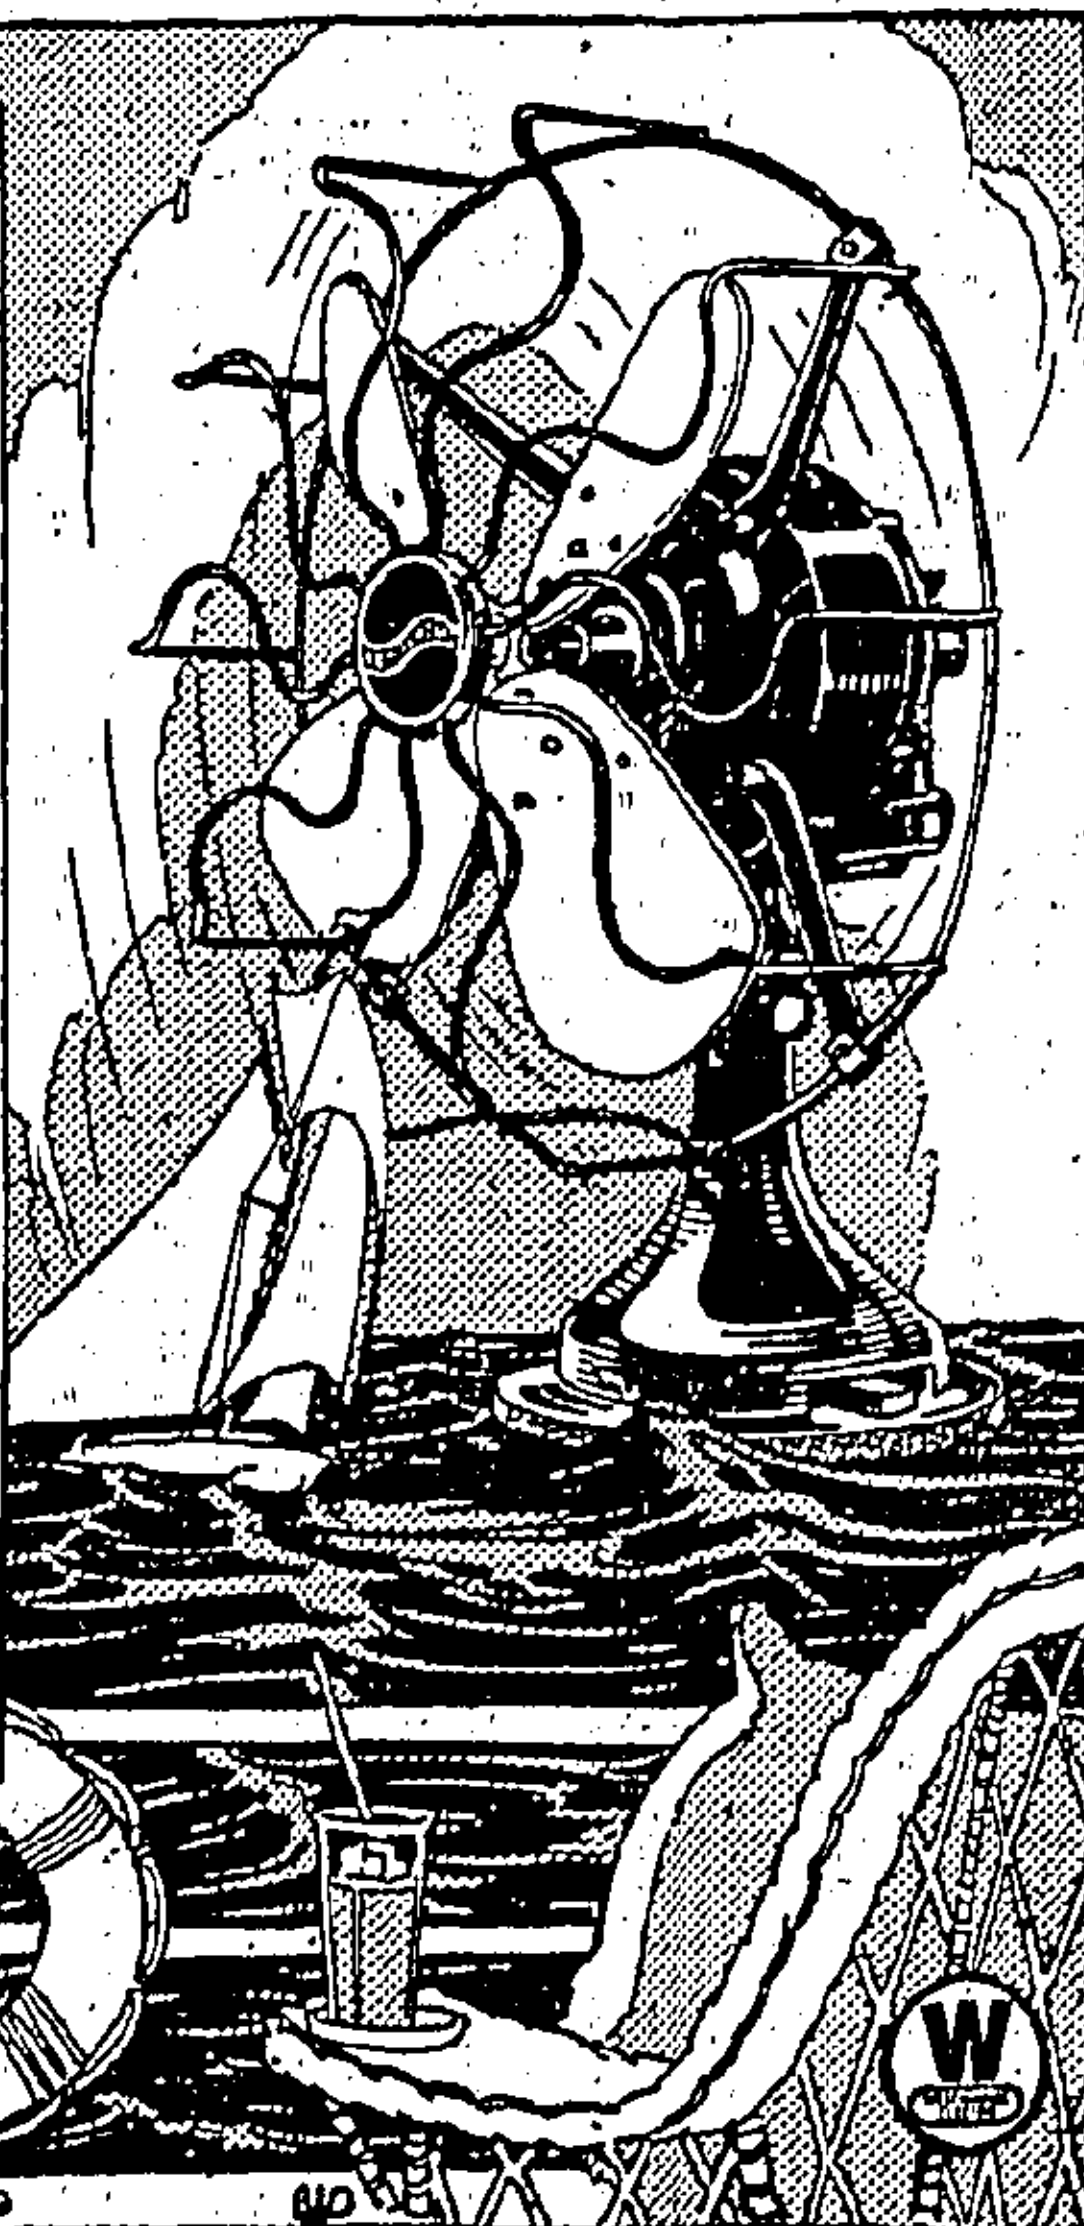

The actress recently became ill. A bullet she had received in her head could not be entirely extracted. She suffered acute pain and took heavy sleeping draughts.

She was found dead in bed in her hotel at Naples, death being due to an excessive sleeping draught.
